

Adeline Sibanda

Adeline Sibanda is the African Evaluation Association (AfrEA) Interim President and Southern Africa Regional Representative on the AfrEA Board. She is the founder and Managing Director of ADESIM Developments, formerly Troparg Consultancy Services. She is a national coach for the African Development Bank programme on Managing for Development Results and the World Bank Ease of Doing Business Program.

Adeline serves on the following other boards: Zimbabwe Evaluation Association, PROWEB, Sedgeperk Trust, Surge Africa and also serves on an advisory committee for an African Community of Practice (AFCOP). She has recently been appointed to the following boards: International Organisation for Cooperation in Evaluation (IOCE) and the Peacebuilding Evaluation Consortium (PEC) Advisory Board.

She has worked for the past 24 years in the field of development with specific focus on leadership and entrepreneurship development, as well as monitoring and evaluation of development projects, and has been instrumental in developing training material and has provided training to organisations throughout sub-Saharan Africa in Monitoring and Evaluation, with specific focus on gender responsive evaluations. Adeline is passionate about coaching individuals to reach their full potential and operate at high standards of excellence. Adeline has worked in over 20 Sub-Saharan countries with clients such as the World Bank, African Development Bank, USAID, UNDP, UNFPA, UN WOMEN, WFP, OXFAM, CIDA, Family Health International, among others.

Source: IOCE and LinkedIn websites, August 2018